

Romania is strengthening its position among the leading industrial hubs in Central and Eastern Europe (CEE), driven by production relocation trends, growing investments in logistics, and ...

July 17, 2025 (Eurostat (via LinkedIn)) - Eurostat, the statistical office of the European Union, posted 11 LinkedIn updates from July 10 to July 17, 2025. These posts covered a wide range ...

The " ExCEEding Borders Office 2025 " report, published by Colliers, shows that Romania is following these trends, with a strong focus on well-located, energy-efficient buildings tailored to ...

Poland's timber industry, once a key driver of exports and one of Europe's leading wood processors, is now grappling with its worst downturn in decades. A toxic mix of raw material shortages, shrinking margins, foreign ...

Romania's industrial output increased by 7.1% y/y or by 3.8% y/y in workday-adjusted terms in May, the statistics office INS announced. The adjusted growth rate is the strongest in three ...

As Romania's real estate market matures and the Schengen zone expands eastward, industrial and retail real estate are emerging as strategic growth engines. In Session 2 of Realty Forum ...

EV Market Trend and Outlook Romania's EV market is contracting in 2025, losing 46.1% to just 4.4% of total car sales. Still affected by the subsidy cut in 2024, Romania's government reinstated a higher eco-bonus, hinting at a ...

Expertise in our category - A deep understanding of our industry, customers, and market trends enabling us to stay ahead and turn challenges into opportunities. Curiosity, insight, and a ...

The office leasing market in Bucharest has registered low vacancies, also due to the rather well-known difficulties in authorising new constructions. This allowed the existing landlords to safely ...

Romania's retail market continues to attract a growing number of international brands, according to an analysis conducted by the Cushman & Wakefield Echinex real estate consultancy ...

More than 40 international retailers entered the Romanian market between 2020 and 2025, according to Cushman & Wakefield Echinex. Globally, all these retail chains have total annual ...

"Bucharest's office market is undergoing a period of transition: demand remains steady across traditional industries such as financial and professional services, but companies are becoming ...

Bucharest industry and market trends

Romania's commercial real estate investment market is expected to continue its recovery in 2025, mainly supported by lower inflation and renewed investor confidence, with sustained deal ...

With a modern office stock of over 3.4 million square metres and a vacancy rate of 12.5%, the Bucharest market remains relatively balanced, despite facing a limited supply of new projects ...

The speakers will present insights from the leasing frontlines, where tenant expectations are shifting toward modular, ESG-aligned, and hybrid-compatible residential spaces. Office ...

Web: <https://www.ekusenitours.co.za>