Are free solar panels worth it?

"Free" solar panels will save you money because energy from solar power is usually less expensive than energy from the electrical grid. Keep in mind, however, that these savings from solar energy are possible regardless of if your solar panels are leased versus purchased. The long-term cost savings help you determine if solar panels are worth it.

Are free solar panels a lie?

While the word "free" implies there are no associated costs, this is not usually the case with free solar panel offers. "I have never seen an advertisement offering free solar that is not a lie," said Neil Gallagher of Brighterway Solar, a solar installation company in Florida.

Are "free" solar panels a good idea?

The concept of "free" or "no-cost" solar panels really is too good to be true. "Free" solar panels are essentially rented from solar companies. While you will reap the benefits of cheaper electricity bills through solar power, you do not own the panels; the solar company does. Once your lease agreement is up, the panels will be removed.

Is the federal government giving away free solar panels?

No, the federal government is not giving away free solar panels. There are private companies offering to install solar panels on homes for free, but the homeowner is only renting the panels and still has to pay for their electricity.

Do Americans get free solar panels?
