

Russian aerial attacks continue to intensify across Ukraine, exacting a rising toll on civilians and infrastructure, senior UN officials told the Security Council on Friday, warning of mounting humanitarian needs amid faltering donor support.

Ukrainian society stands for justice and principles, not for names or institutions On the evening of July 22, protests erupted in cities across Ukraine as people gathered in town squares: young ...

KYIV, Ukraine (AP) -- Thousands of people gathered in Kyiv and other cities across Ukraine on Tuesday to urge the president to veto a controversial bill that threatens anti-corruption ...

As years of war in Ukraine have left millions with unreliable heating and limited means to pay rising utility costs, the UN and humanitarian partners launched a $277 million appeal this ...

Consequently, a coordinated, multi-organizational humanitarian response is crucial for effective aid delivery. This paper examines the structure of the humanitarian response to the crisis ...

By 2025, Ukraine's drone industry--once a stopgap response to Russian aggression--has evolved into a $50 billion global ecosystem, redefining the rules of warfare through low-cost, ...

Ongoing hostilities and the pervasive presence of landmines or other explosive ordnance have led to a rising demand for trauma and emergency care, rendering many regions unsafe and ...

The Sumy region of northeastern Ukraine has suffered greatly since Russia's full-scale invasion in 2022. Communities there have faced near-constant shelling and drone attacks, leaving vital infrastructure damaged or destroyed. Schools, ...

At the Ukraine Recovery Conference, Norway announced, new contributions for cyber defence, air defence, demining, and reconstruction. Our response to Russian aggression is not fatigue, but ...

Delegates from Russia and Ukraine have held peace talks in Turkey, according to Russia's state-owned press agency, TASS. Meanwhile, at home, Ukraine's President Volodymyr Zelenskyy is facing the ...

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky, speaking at the start of the two-day Ukraine Recovery Conference, is urging politicians and businesses to boost investments in defence, warning Russian ...

17 July 2025, Ukraine - As Ukraine braces for another harsh winter amid escalating hostilities and continued strikes on critical infrastructure, the United Nations and humanitarian partners...

Ukraine demand response

In response, our partners are working with authorities to open new sites in the Sumy and Dnipro regions to meet rising needs. Across Ukraine, 3.7 million people remain displaced, with nearly 6 million refugees abroad.

Ukraine demand response

Web: <https://www.ekusenitours.co.za>